Every kelong has a fire going somewhere — it's how the hours pass between one haul and the next. Skewers turning, hands reaching in before they've cooled.

Twelve to share at Sampanman, two very different sauces: pineapple peanut for the chicken, spicy kecap manis for the beef!

WELCOME TO SAMPANMAN

Step into a world of maritime heritage at SampanMan, where we bring the flavors of the sea to life with the freshest seafood — just like the orang laut of old. Inspired by traditional kelong-style dining, our restaurant pays homage to the seafarers who lived on wooden boats and in coastal villages, crafting hearty seafood feasts from the ocean's bounty.

Experience a taste of nostalgia with our Tingkat-style dishes, reminiscent of the days when families shared warm meals from stacked tiffin carriers. In the afternoon, slow down with a comforting break over Teh Tarik and Chwee Kueh — a perfect pairing to unwind before the charcoal grills light up for the evening feast.

Rooted in kelong life and the sea, the Sampanman logo features a sampan boat and 渔人码头 ("Fisherman's Wharf"). Each outlet and sub-brand—like Teh Tarik Time and Chwee Kueh — has its own identity, all united by the Sampanman spirit of heritage and bold flavours.

BRAND STORY

We chose "Kelong" as our slogan to mark our evolution into an all-day Halal-certified dining destination - from vibrant lunches to laid-back afternoon teas and lively seafood dinners.

A kelong isn't just a fishing structure — it's a way of life. It stands for fresh catch, slow moments, and communal living. Just like how the tide flows from morning to night, our menu flows through the day, inspired by local flavors and nostalgic touches that evoke Southeast Asia's coastal charm.

At lunch, we serve hearty, familiar dishes in Tingkat-style tiffin carriers, bringing a sense of homely comfort and throwback flair. In the afternoon, we invite guests to unwind over Teh Tarik and traditional snacks - because a true kelong isn't just about food, it's about slowing down and connecting.

As the sun sets, the aroma from our Sampan griller takes over — smoking fresh seafood the way it's done over charcoal fires on old fishing boats. Our dinner experience is built for sharing, filled with bold, spicy, and buttery seafood dishes that celebrate the bounty of the sea.

Whether you're in for a midday break or a full evening feast, our "Kelong" is a place to gather, graze, and go slow, all day long.

Sampanman reimagines the kelong experience as an all-day Halal certified dining journey — from nostalgic lunches to bold seafood feasts.

THE TRADITION OF THICK BUTTER ON KELONG TOAST

Born on the breezy wooden kelongs of the 1950s, this humble toast was once a fisherman's fuel. Thick-cut butter wasn't just indulgence — it was survival, meant to last through long hours at sea. Slathered with fragrant kaya and paired with kopi, it became a morning ritual that filled bellies and brought good luck. Today, our Kelong Toast keeps that tradition alive — hearty, nostalgic, and unapologetically generous.
